

Illustration of Linear Program with uncertain constraints

(\hat{x}, \hat{y}) is the solution obtained using the expected values of the constraint parameters in the Linear Program, (x^, y^) is the stochastically optimal solution to the Linear Program, and $(x_p^{}(j), y_p^{}(j))$ is the optimal solution for a given realisation j of the uncertain constraint parameters